In Memory
of
Mrs. Mildred Paxton Moody

Senator Doggett offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 270)

WHEREAS, An important chapter in Texas history came to a close with the death of Mrs. Mildred Paxton Moody, wife of the late governor Dan Moody on March 1, 1983; and

WHEREAS, A lifelong Texan, Mrs. Moody was born April 20, 1897, in Abilene, the daughter of George and Matilda Paxton; and

WHEREAS, After attending Hardin University where she was destined to meet her future husband, Mildred Paxton entered The University of Texas to work on her master's degree in English; a contributor to the Daily Texan, she was elected editor in 1918, an honor reserved for young women only one day a year; and

WHEREAS, Marrying Dan Moody on April 20, 1926, in the midst of his first gubernatorial campaign, she was plunged head first into the political maelstrom; a lesser woman would have quailed at spending the first seven months of her married life on the campaign trail; and

WHEREAS, After her husband's hard-fought November victory, Mrs. Moody proved herself a most gracious and exemplary first lady; one of our youngest first ladies, Mrs. Moody made headlines of her own at the birth of her first child during her husband's governorship; perhaps her most enduring contribution was her impressive renovation and redecoration of the Governor's Mansion; and

WHEREAS, After Governor Moody's retirement from political life, Governor and Mrs. Moody chose to remain in Austin, and for more than 50 years Mrs. Moody resided in the same house on Woodlawn Boulevard; and

WHEREAS, A charitable and giving woman, Mrs. Moody devoted untold hours to the betterment of Austin through her service with the Junior League, United Fund, and Settlement Club; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Moody instilled a deep commitment to public service in her children, Dan and Nancy, who both served with great distinction as parliamentarians of the Texas Senate; and

WHEREAS, She will be remembered by her family and friends as a woman with a great capacity for loving and caring; her personal kindness will be cherished by all whose lives she touched; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 68th Legislature, honor the memory of this noble daughter of Texas and extend deep condolences to the members of her family on their grievous loss: her son, Dan Moody, Jr.; her daughter, Nancy; and her two grandchildren, Martha and Charles Moody; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared under the Seal of the Senate and presented to the members of her family as an expression of deepest sympathy from the Members of the Texas Senate, and that when the Senate adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Mildred Paxton Moody.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Howard and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator Doggett and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.
